

Stephen Griner

President & Chief Operating Officer

“I believe in the saying ‘life begins at the end of your comfort zone.’ We should all continue to push ourselves everyday and never settle for ordinary.”

Stephen began his career in financial services in 2001 handling financial planning, investments, and insurance. Since joining the White Horse team in 2004, his roles and responsibilities have progressed. In 2008, Stephen began leading daily operations, became an equity owner in 2009, and was named President in 2011. Today, he oversees all company operations, chairs the White Horse Investment Committee, and works with a select number of clients.

Stephen is a cum laude graduate of the University of Georgia’s Terry College of Business, with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance. In 2010, Stephen earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation. He is a member of the CFA Institute and the Atlanta Society of Finance and Investment Professionals.

Stephen is a native of Georgia, growing up in Athens. He married his high school sweetheart, Angela and they have twin boys, Aiden and Will. They currently reside in Brookhaven and are members of Peachtree Road United Methodist Church. Stephen enjoys staying active outdoors through hunting, fishing, hiking, and rock climbing. These activities become even more enjoyable as his sons begin to participate in them. Most fall weekends he and Angela load up the twins and travel to Athens for University of Georgia football games.
